

I am against the NAB petition that would prohibit XM Radio from providing Traffic & Weather. If they are successful, their next target will be the Weather Channel. Instead of trying to eliminate their competition, they should concentrate on improving their product.

Thank you,

William W. Swift